Meals at Community Commons Dining Hall

Overnight Campers will receive breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Commuter Campers will receive lunch and dinner.

Breakfast will be the only meal served on the last day of camp.

Food Allergies: The DU Dining staff does an amazing job of working with food allergies, each dining station is labeled with ingredients.

*Meals can be made special for individuals with special dietary needs. Upon arrival to the dining hall, campers can notify the dining staff of special or specific meal requirements. ****

Health and Safety Plan

We will implement our health and safety plan based on the University's guidelines.

Medical Attention

Full-time athletic trainers will be on duty to oversee minor injuries and sickness. For more serious issues we will contact the athlete's emergency contact and 911 if needed.

Safety and Chaperones

Each floor of the dorm is staffed with female camp counselors and their room numbers are noted for all campers to see. For the safety of our campers, no one is permitted to have overnight guests. In the case of an emergency, campers and parents must contact our staff. Please leave all valuables at home.

Campers are NOT allowed to leave the dorms or campus during camp.
